Re: Mutual Qualification Agreement

Dear Chief Acevedo:

As you are aware, retired police officers who wish to legally carry a concealed weapon as an Honorably Retired officer within the state of Texas are required to qualify with their weapon on an annual basis.

For retired Houston police officers who maintain a residence in or around the greater Houston area, the Houston Police Department Academy qualification range can be utilized for this purpose with minimal inconvenience. However, for retired officers who do not maintain a residence in close proximity to the area, traveling to Houston to qualify with their weapon can present quite an obstacle. Accordingly, I am proposing a mutual agreement whereby retired Houston police officers be granted the courtesy of utilizing the Austin Police Department qualification range in order to qualify with their weapon for this specific purpose. This courtesy would of course be extended to any retired Austin police officers who wish to use the Houston Police Department qualification range for similar purposes.

If you agree with this proposal, please sign as indicated below and this document shall serve as our respective departments' position on this matter.

Art Acevedo, Chief of Police

Sincerely,

Harold L. Hurtt
